

NCR WATCH DESK

SUNRISE BRIEF, DECEMBER 4, 2019

I. WEATHER

- Today: 30% chance of showers after 4PM. Mostly cloudy. High 49°. Low 35°.

II. DEVELOPMENTS OF NOTE

National Capital Region

- District of Columbia: The US Speaker of the House, Nancy Pelosi, will conduct a tree lighting ceremony on the west lawn of the US Capitol today. The Capitol Christmas tree will feature thousands of handcrafted ornaments and will be lit each night at dusk until 11PM through January. Link
- Prince George's County: A man has died after being struck by a Metro train he reportedly placed himself in the path of in Capitol Heights. The Silver Line and Blue Line trains single-tracked following the incident. The incident is under investigation. Link

United States

- Wisconsin: Within 24 hours, six schools have had threats reported. Two teenagers – 91 miles apart – were shot by police officers inside their high schools. The latest school shooting happened Tuesday morning in Oshkosh, when a student brought a gun to school became involved in a confrontation with a resource officer and the officer shot the student. Both were injured during the incident and were transported to local hospitals. Link

World

- Sudan: An explosion occurred at a ceramic's factory triggered by a fire has killed 23 people and injured more than 130 others in northern Khartoum. The factory's blast blew an outside tanker into a nearby lot. The fire destroyed the factory. An initial observation indicated a lack of safety measures in addition to random storage of flammable materials. Link

Members of the Sudanese Civil Defense put out the fire at a factory unit (Source: CNN)

- Afghanistan: Six people were killed when gunmen opened fire on a vehicle belonging to a Japanese physician and aid workers in Nangarhar province. This is the second attack in weeks targeting aid workers. No one has claimed responsibility for the attack. In November, a grenade hit a vehicle that injured two and killed six, one of which was an American working for the United Nations. Link
- Global: The FBI, US Attorney's Office, and the State Department have continued their extensive investigation since 2010 to locate Jihad Serwan Mostafa, a US citizen believed to be leading al-Shabaab's explosives department and has been involved in the use of improvised explosive devices. Mostafa remains on the FBI's Most Wanted Terrorist List and is believed to be in Somalia currently. Link