

NCR WATCH DESK

SUNRISE BRIEF, NOVEMBER 9, 2019

I. WEATHER

- Today: Sunny. High 46°. Low 35°.

II. DEVELOPMENTS OF NOTE

National Capital Region

- Arlington & District of Columbia: A 36-inch water main break closed portions of Chain Bridge Road Friday morning. The break triggered a precautionary Boil Water Advisory for residents in Arlington County and parts of Northwest DC. Link

The 36-inch water main break in Arlington County.
(Source: WTOP)

- Montgomery County: A Silver Alert is activated for 87-year old Chungkuang Cheng. He was last seen at approximately 11AM in Rockville, Maryland.
- District of Columbia: This weekend, Metro will be conducting lighting work. The Federal Triangle and Smithsonian stations will be closed and there will be no Blue, Orange or Silver line service at Metro Center or L'Enfant Plaza. Shuttle buses are scheduled to shuttle passengers between the affected stations. Link

United States

- Oklahoma: Ten people were allegedly injected with insulin instead of the flu shot at a care facility in Bartlesville, 45 miles from Tulsa. First responders found one patient unresponsive and noticed other people were exhibiting similar symptoms. Link
- South Carolina: Authorities seized over $20 million worth of drugs after an investigation into a large-scale drug trafficking operation. The investigation resulted in the arrest of 54 people. Link

World

- Iraq: Seventeen Katyusha rockets hit an Iraqi air base hosting American troops in Qayyara, 38 miles south of Mosul. No members of the US-led coalition were injured. There was no immediate claim of responsibility. Link
- Australia: Two people are dead and a dozen are injured after bushfires burn across the eastern region. Nearly 1,500 firefighters are battling more than 70 fires across the country's most populous state, New South Wales. This is one of the worst bushfire seasons and it is occurring even before the start of the southern hemisphere summer, where parts of the country are experiencing a severe drought. Link