

NCR WATCH DESK

SUNRISE BRIEF, NOVEMBER 18, 2019

I. WEATHER

- Today: Patchy drizzle before 8AM. Patchy drizzle with isolated showers between 8AM and 11AM. Scattered showers after 10AM. Patchy fog between 7AM and 10AM. High 48°. Low 37°.

II. DEVELOPMENTS OF NOTE

National Capital Region

- Arlington County: The 395 Express Lanes opened yesterday and offers drivers quicker options for travelling in Northern Virginia up to the District of Columbia (DC) line. The lanes run for 8-miles from near Edsall Road in Fairfax County to the 14th Street Bridge in DC. Drivers need an E-ZPass or E-ZPass Flex to pay the toll. Motorcycles and buses equipped with an E-ZPass travel for free. Drivers should be aware of dynamic pricing signs that will update every ten minutes. The 395 Express Lanes also aims to make the commute easier for drivers heading to the Pentagon and Pentagon City. Link
- Fairfax County: A man with a gun barricaded inside a home on the 6200 block of Fogle Street. Residents were urged to shelter-in-place while police responded to the incident. The man called 911 during a mental health crisis and was taken into emergency custody. Link

United States

- California: At least ten people were wounded and four were killed at a backyard football viewing party in Fresno. An unknown suspect approached on foot and opened fired into a crowd of 35 people. Fresno police described the incident as a 'mass casualty shooting'. There is no information on the suspect. Link

Fresno police and fire responded to a mass shooting in Fresno, California (Source: CNN)

- Arkansas: Two chemistry professors were arrested for manufacturing methamphetamine at Henderson State University in Arkadelphia, 61 miles from Little Rock. University Police initiated the investigation after a report of an undetermined chemical odor on campus. Preliminary testing indicated an elevated presence of benzyl chloride, a chemical used in the production of methamphetamine. Link

World

- Dominion Republic: Authorities arrested six people in connection with the death of an US teacher who was found dead in Cabarete, 125 miles from Santo Domingo. The woman was an alleged victim of a robbery. Police are searching for a seventh suspect. Investigators did not say how the suspects were connected to the woman's death. Link